

How to use OCR

Choose the images you want “Export” to “OCR”.

Remember “identity current language”, and click “Confirm”.

The screenshot displays the CZUR software interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Scan', 'Export', and 'Batch', with 'Export' being the active tab. Below these are options for 'PDF', 'TIFF', 'OCR', and 'Searchable PDF', with 'OCR' selected. A 'Settings' gear icon is in the top right. The main workspace shows a document being processed. A dialog box titled 'CZUR' is open, with a red border. It contains the text 'Identify current language: English' and a list of languages. 'English' is selected with a radio button. Other languages include 'Chinese Simplified; English;', 'Chinese Simplified', 'Chinese Traditional; English;', and 'Chinese Traditional'. There is also an 'Others' section with a scrollable list of languages starting with 'A'. A 'Confirm' button is at the bottom right of the dialog. A red arrow labeled 'Step 1' points to the 'English' selection. Another red arrow labeled 'Step 2' points to the 'Confirm' button. The bottom of the interface shows a toolbar with 'Color', 'Patterns', 'Stamps', 'Grayscale', and 'B&W' options, with 'B&W' selected. A status bar at the bottom left shows 'Version:17.4.0615.2' and the bottom right shows 'No background tasks'.

Step 2

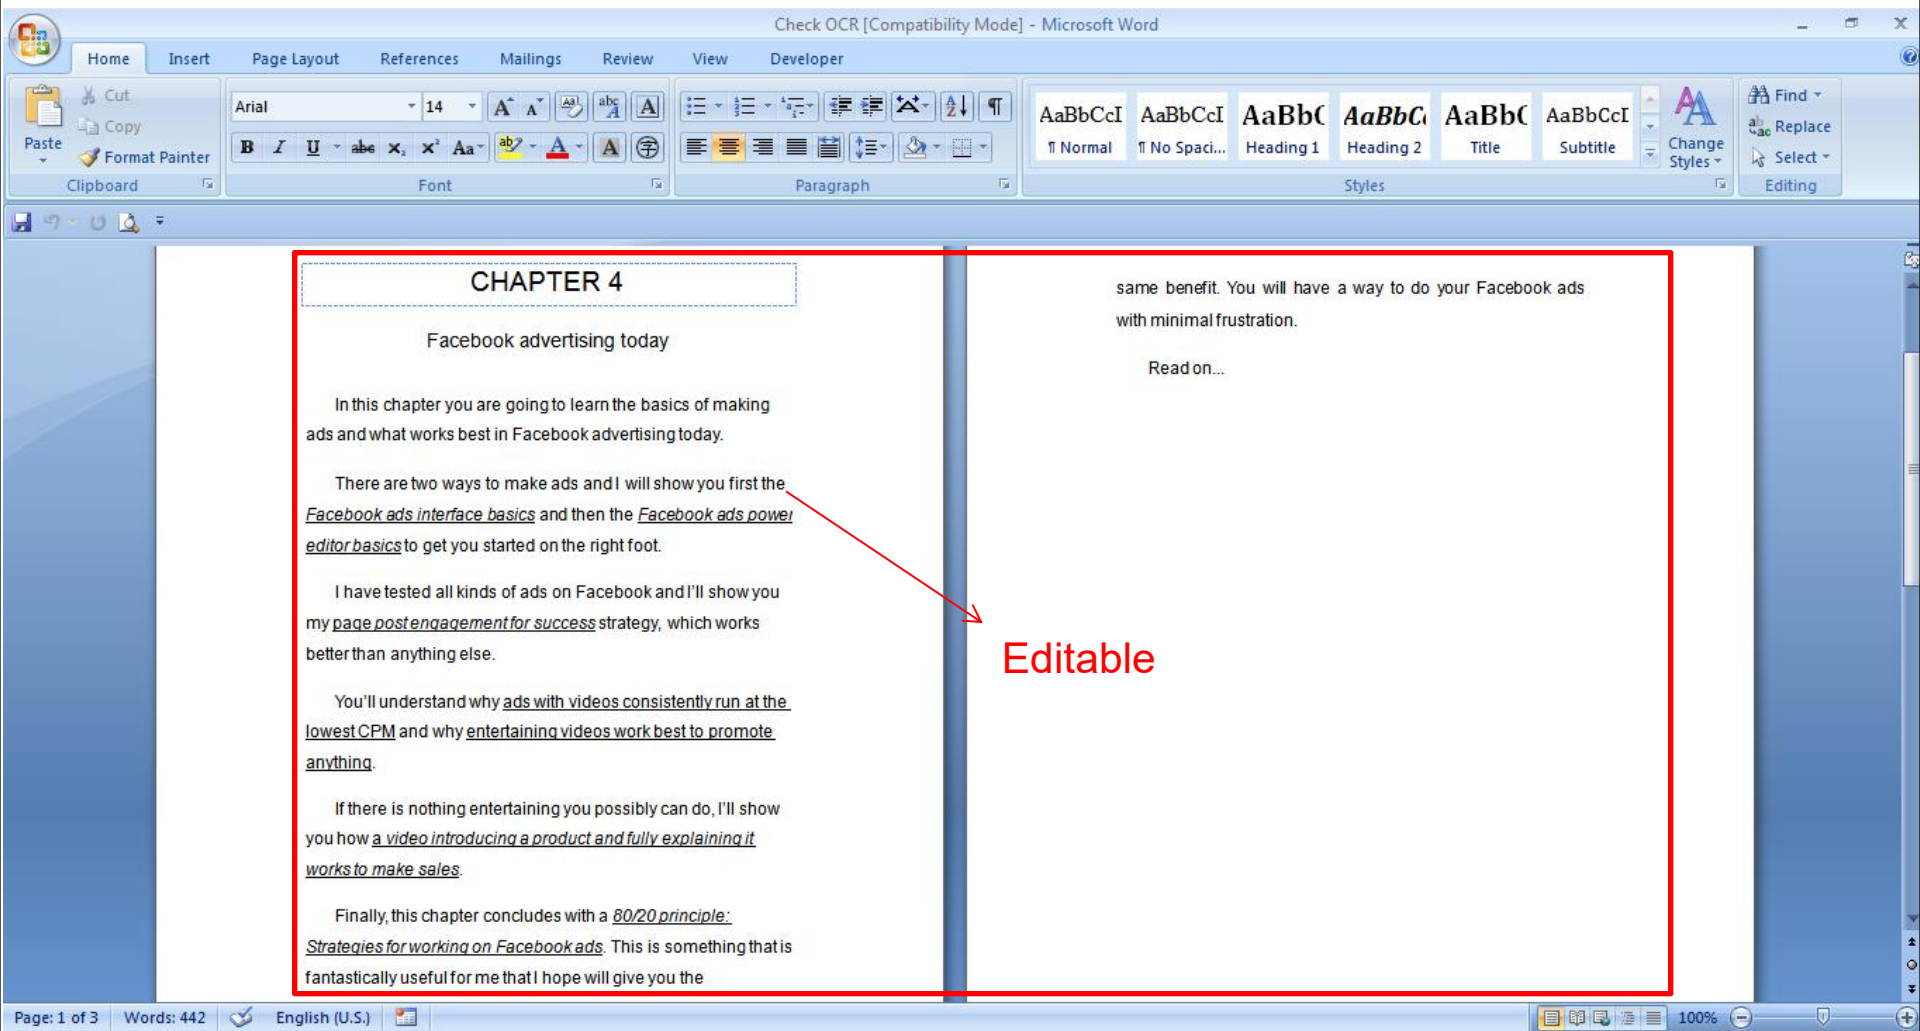

Save as document.

Click "Check OCR. Docx" to view your word document.
